"Ms. Rud's medical summaries have saved me countless hours in not having to wade through mountains of medical bills and records. Her summary would include a thorough record review, identification of missing records, negotiating points and information regarding relevant medical topics such as anatomy and physiology. She has assisted me in finding the appropriate IME doctor or Consultant, locating expert witnesses, preparing for medical depositions and researching credentials of providers. She is hard working, dedicated and extremely professional".

Vincent Purtell
Counsel for American Family Insurance

"Kelly did an excellent job with the medical file summary. Kelly took a mess of medical records and prepared a clear and concise report that was not only easy to read and understand, but also provided me with the information that I needed to effectively handle my claim."

Lynn Bren, AIC LPCS
Claims Adjuster
Claims Associates, Inc.

"Kelly has provided invaluable assistance in helping me to understand the claimed injuries and resulting medical treatment. She will review a file...detailing the claimed injuries and explaining them in a manner understandable to a lay person. She then prepares a clear, concise summary of the settlement negotiation.

Thanks to Kelly, I am able to distinguish which medical bills and treatments are related to a particular accident and which are unrelated."

Medical records a MYSTERY?

Unravel the enigma and be prepared for your case.

Legal Nurse

Consulting

PROUD MEMBER

AALNC

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF
LEGAL NURSE CONSULTANTS

What is a Legal Nurse Consultant, Certified?

An LNCC is a registered nurse who has successfully mastered a rigorous National Board Certification process to become a nurse specialist in the field of Legal Nurse Consulting.

Unlike the CLNC, the LNCC is the ONLY certification that is recognized by the AALNC (American Association of Legal Nurse Consultants) and is the ONLY designation that is nationally accredited by the American Board of Nursing Specialists.

Why do you need an LNCC?

An LNCC can provide expertise by reviewing the medical records with an understanding of the terminology and issues relating to health care. They can work with you and/or your paralegal to provide the most cost-effective analysis to quickly identify the strengths and weaknesses of a case.

Services Offered:

- Assist in determining case merit
- Assess alleged damages and other contributing factors
- Conduct research and summarize medical literature
- Coordinate, prepare files, and attend independent medical examinations
- Summarize and interpret medical records
- Identify, request and secure complete medical records
- Provide negotiation points to assist in settlements
- Prepare chronologies
- Review, analyze and summarize depositions
- Assist in the retention of medical experts

This behind-the-scenes service of assimilating raw case material into a meaningful format will allow you to save time and money.
